

Rubric for Board Credit Course Proposals

COURSE PROPOSAL TITLE: _____

TOTAL SCORE: _____

	4	3	2	1
Presenter	Presenter has an advanced certificate related to this course. Presenter has previously taught this board credit course and/or has advanced experience presenting course information.	Presenter has a position in the district related to course. Presenter has advanced to intermediate experience presenting course information.	Presenter has some training related to the course. Presenter has intermediate to novice experience presenting course information.	Does not meet the criteria. No evidence.
Need/Purpose	Course is strongly aligned to multiple district goals and initiatives. Course reflects a high interest from District Survey (top 3). Course is supported by and linked to researched-based data.	Course is strongly aligned to a district goal and initiative. Course reflects an interest from the District Survey (top 4-8). Course is supported by and linked to researched-based data.	Course implies a connection to a district goal or initiative. Course reflects a slight interest from the District Survey. Course is not supported by nor linked to research-based data.	Does not meet the criteria. No evidence.
Outcome	Course allows immediate implementation of materials covered. Course has strong potential to influence teachers' instructional practice. Course has strong potential to impact student learning and engagement reflecting our diverse student population (overall and/or by subgroup).	Course allows for future implementation of materials. Course has moderate potential to influence teachers' instructional practice. Course has moderate potential to impact student learning and engagement reflecting most of our diverse student population (overall and/or by subgroup).	Course does not allow implementation of materials in the near future. Course has potential to influence teachers' instructional practice. Course has potential to impact student learning and engagement reflecting a portion of our diverse student population (overall and/or by subgroup).	Does not meet the criteria. No evidence.
Content	Presenter provides a detailed course syllabus that goes beyond a complete outline of the main content and topics for each session. Course objectives strongly address the needs of a diverse group of students (overall and/or by subgroup).	Presenter provides a complete outline of the main content and topics for each session. Course objectives address the needs of a diverse group of students (overall and/or by subgroup).	Presenter provides a brief outline of main content / topics for each session. Course objectives somewhat address the needs of a diverse group of students (overall and/or by subgroup).	Does not meet the criteria. No evidence.
Other Considerations (location, materials, equipment, additional support needed)	Course is highly cost effective with regards to ratio of participants.	Course is cost effective with regards to ratio of participants.	Course is somewhat cost effective with regards to ratio of participants	Does not meet the criteria No evidence